

WORKSHOP OCTOBER 22-23, 2015

POLITICAL THEORY AS A RACE CRITICAL THEORY CHALLENGING THE BANALITY OF RACISM

Justus Liebig University Giessen
University Main Building, Senatssaal, Ludwigstraße 23

Thursday, October 22 13:30 - 19:30

Introduction – Political Theory as a ‘Race’ Critical Theory

Jeanette Ehrmann (Goethe University Frankfurt/JLU Giessen)

Epistemologies of Ignorance: Race, Gender, and the Myths of Multiculturalism

Yoko Arisaka (University of Hildesheim)

Race and Philosophy: The Policies of Universality

Nadia Yala Kisukidi (Université de Genève/Collège international de philosophie, Paris)

Challenging the Banality of Racism in Theory and Practice - 18:00

Roundtable chaired by Felmon Davis (Union College, Schenectady) with Regina Kreide (JLU Giessen),
Eddie Bruce-Jones, Jeanette Ehrmann,
Vanessa Eileen Thompson and Micha Brumlik (Zentrum Jüdische Studien Berlin-Brandenburg)